The special meeting of the Idaho Sheep and Goat Health Board was held Tuesday, March 25, 2025, remotely on Microsoft Teams. The meeting was called to order by chairperson, Steve Wilder, at 9:00 am.

Roll was called by Lauren Mink. The following board members and guests were present: Steve Wilder, Chairman, Tony Parsons, Board Member, Carol Finney, Board Member, David Dalling, Board Member, Dillan Henslee, Board Member, and Lauren Mink, ISGHB Secretary.

Tony Parsons moved to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. Carol Finney seconded. Motion passed.

Steve Wilder provided a chairman's report. He thanked everyone for attending and expressed his appreciation for their dedication to the board.

Lauren Mink provided a secretary report. She announced that our ZBR Chapter Rewrite was passed in both the House and the Senate Ag Affairs Committees. She updated the board on the Idaho Ag Day event at the capital with 22 agriculture commodity groups present. Lauren said she would update the board with the quarterly scrapie testing numbers as soon as she can get that information. Lauren also informed the board that she will be expecting a baby sometime during the end of July or beginning of August. She will work with the board and other supporting entities to ensure the duties of ISGHB are taken care of during her maternity leave.

Lauren presented the ASI Scrapie Session at the National Institute for Animal Agriculture Conference. David Dalling moved to approve Lauren Mink's travel expenses and registration for the ASI Scrapie Session at the National Institute for Animal Agriculture Conference. Tony Parsons seconded. Motion passed.

For the good of the order, David emphasized the importance of gathering information at the Scrapie Session to share with the whole board. Lauren agreed and said she will take thorough notes and compile information to share with the board.

The meeting adjourned at 9:20 am.
