9.	Members Reports/Discussion	Court solutions and 3rd Millennium. There are 5 court solutions courses left that the council had purchased. Carol is not sure how many 3rd Millennium are left. Codes for the courses were sent out to all probation departments. The council purchased online classes but encountered access issues, with people unable to contact Brittany due to email problems. They eventually resolved this by directly distributing the access code to users. Five licenses remain available for Core Solutions courses, which were being used faster than other offerings. Mini-Cassia County has utilized several of the purchased licenses.05:25 Korey stated that Commission will be next week. D5 member reappointments will be voted on at the Commission meeting. Jennifer Stokesbury stated she is interested in joining the commission. She will submit a resume. Jennifer and Tiffany mentioned a couple of SROs would be good to have on the council. Tiffany and Jennifer to reach out to school resource officers Kyle and Cody about potentially joining the juvenile justice council. Jennifer mentioned a program Morningside Elementary wants to start. She asked about requesting council money. Council told her the process to request funds.	All Members
