Opening Questions:

What do you see as the biggest opportunity & challenge for Serve Idaho in 2023?

- The executive committee discussed outreach, volunteerism, growth of the commission, aligning talent and skills with committee work, and the opportunities that have come with ARPA funds

Biggest barrier is organizational recognition in our community, especially our rural communities

- The executive committee discussed the challenges that come with navigating challenge bureaucracy, the national issue around declining volunteer/member numbers and difficulty recruiting, as well as changes with future funding

Chair Updates

- Review and update committee goals in Operational Dashboard
- Committee SOPs
- Meeting frequency and schedule
 - o Frequency is at discretion of the chair, monthly meeting cadence is working well, flow of work often determines necessity of meetings (grants, commissioner applications, etc.)

- Committees to discuss standing meeting dates at January commission meeting and submit to Serve Idaho staff
- Assigning new commissioners to committees – best fit may be determined during mentoring and onboarding phase

 - Committees may consider a vice chair to regularly assume duties in chair’s absence
- Committee chairs share agenda for committee breakouts at commission meeting
